Corporate Values & Guidelines for
Employees of the Seves Group

Foreword

Dear colleagues,

Welcome to Seves' Compliance Booklet. It is part of our Compliance Management System and offers an overview on the guidelines binding on our group and employees' behavior. It shall offer a first and quick guidance to do the right things in a challenging and changing business environment.

It is the responsibility and duty of each of us to always

- comply with all applicable laws and regulations (including anti-trust and anti-corruption laws and regulations),
- observe and promote high ethical business standards and be honest and integer,
- respect and treat fairly all our colleagues, customers, suppliers, our business partners and various stakeholders,
- be loyal to Seves and protect our assets, confidential information, data and know-how,
- secure the health and safety of our colleagues and neighbors and
- protect the environment.

Only if we conduct our business observing these values and duties, we will be able to ensure the long-term success of Seves and its business units.

In case of any questions as to how to behave in a special situation, please contact the relevant HR department, the local Compliance Representative or Seves' Chief Compliance Officer.

Thank you very much for your continuous dedication to our group.

Yours,

Jean Nakache, Sediver CEO

Erik Göthlin, PPC CEO

We adhere to an elaborated disposal concept in our sites and offices.

22

Strong Appearance

Every employee influences our company's public image.

We reinforce the appearance of our business units which use their own names and corporate designs by focusing on their identities and core competencies.

Each business unit uses its individual appearance with the corresponding corporate design and standardized style sheets, which accompany the respective company processes.

23

Internal/External Communication

We promote and protect freedom of expression.

When sending e-mails we use the same degree of care as with letters and always check the correctness of the recipient's address.

We do not send e-mails to an unlimited number of addressees, but only to selected addressees.

Communicating with the media (print, TV, ...) shall be done exclusively by the persons officially responsible for this at Seves.

24

Consequences

Each employee must be aware that any violation of laws or guidelines will have consequences.

The violation of Seves' guidelines and standards of conduct may result in disciplinary action (up to a possible termination of the employment contract) in line with applicable local employment laws.

Violations of laws (such as anti-trust laws and anti-bribery laws) often also result in criminal sanctions (fines, imprisonment) and may trigger third party claims against the relevant employee.

25

Reporting of Violations

All reports will be examined without undue delay.
